WELCOME TO H & C

ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW

Brand history | A story of focus & dedication

Over the last three decades, Lincor Holdings (Pty) Ltd has experienced several name changes, yet our commitment to our products and core philosophies remains steadfast.

Originating from South Africa, we've established ourselves as the premier independent provider in the plumbing and sanitaryware industry. Our expertise lies in brassware and associated items. About a decade ago, we embarked on a journey to extend the value we bring to our industry across Africa, addressing the significant imbalance between price and quality prevalent in the market.

Our strategy involves meticulously choosing vital partners and distributors in various regions to collaborate in ensuring that all customers selected by H&C obtain unparalleled value for their money. Our capacity to offer competitive pricing while maintaining superior product standards stems from our extensive and well-established customer network across 15 operational areas. This extensive reach allows us to manufacture on a large scale efficiently.

Ultimately, this cost-benefit is transferred to our distributors, who in turn extend it to our clients. This strategy achieves a perfect balance between price and quality, aligning them in ideal harmony.

HOME CONVENIENCE

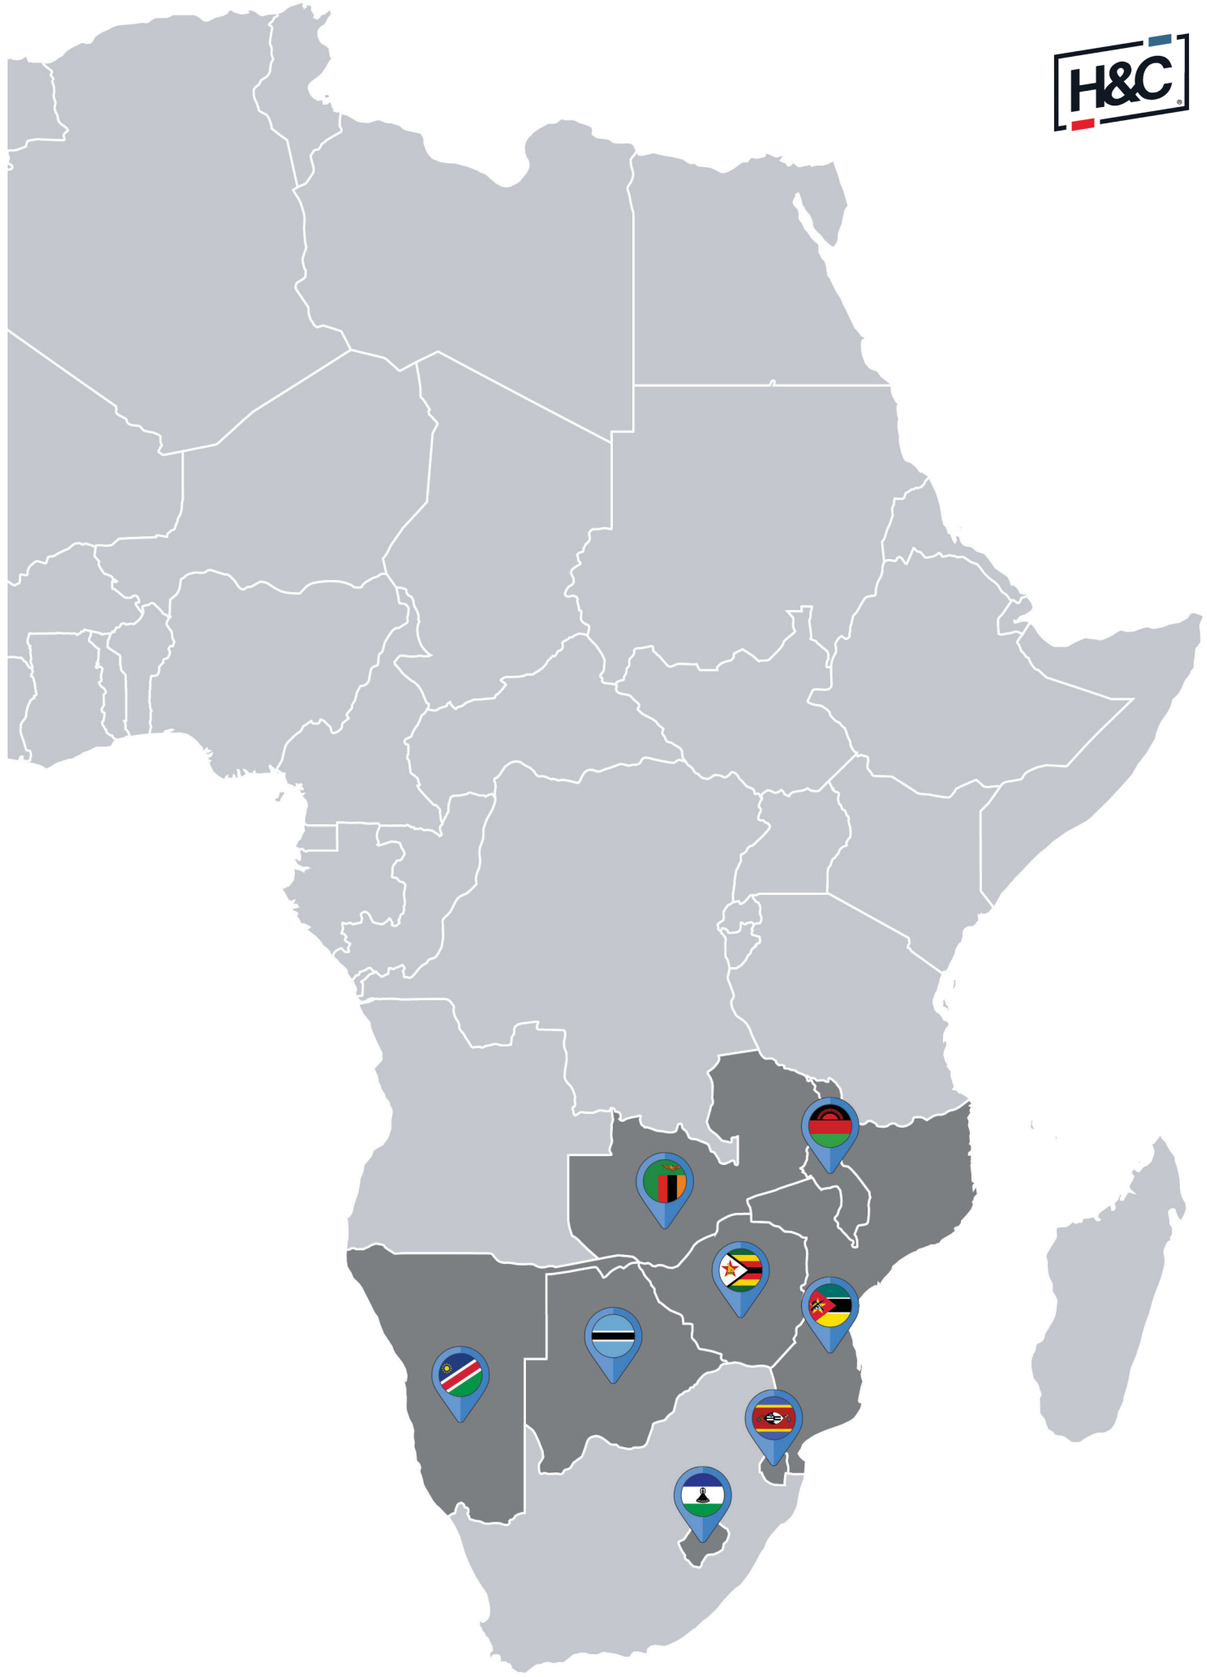

All of our products have been designed to work with all plumbing systems. We have also taken care to ensure our designs find synergy with standard or styled basins and baths.

As you browse through the brochure, take note of the highlighted specific features and benefits relevant to each page range and / or category of products. Look for the icons on each page.

Choosing the right bathroom and kitchen fittings for your home is not easy.

At H&C we have made life simple. Know that by choosing an H & C product you are Getting .....

- 10 year guarantee on faucets
- Products you can trust from a company with over 30 years in the industry
- Tested to the highest standards
- All products undergo stringent quality control
- A friendly knowledgeable service team
- Products you will love for many years to come
